

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Chatham, MA

The First Congregational Church of Chatham is a Christian church serving the Barnstable County congregation. The original building was built in 1700, and serves as the iconic gateway to town. It has undergone several renovations, including a steeple stabilization and interior restoration project. Most recently, Coastal Engineering teamed up with Spencer & Vogt Group and Cape Associates to perform a comprehensive conditions assessment and feasibility study of rehabilitation and proposed improvements.

SERVICES

- Civil and structural engineering design
- Conditions assessment report
- Feasibility study

